- a. The name of the Related Party and nature of relationship;
- b. The nature, duration of the contract and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
- c. The material terms of the contract or arrangement including the value, if any
- d. Any other information relevant or important for the Board to take a decision on the proposed transaction.

 NOTE:

If a Board or any member of company is interested in an item of business which is a Related Party Transaction under Section 188 of the Act proposed to be entered into by the company, he/she shall recuse himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval or ratification of such of the Related Party transaction. Further, such interested member shall also not be reckoned for the purpose of counting quorum of the meeting.

ASCERTAINING WHETHER RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS ARE IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS

1. In order to determine whether a transaction is within the ordinary course of business or not, some of the principles that may be adopted to assess are as follows:
 - a) whether the transaction is in line with the usual transactions, customs and practices undertaken by the company to conduct its business operations and activities;
 - b) whether it is permitted by the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the company; and
 - c) whether the transaction is such that it is required to be undertaken in order to conduct the routine or usual transactions of a company.
2. The Company may also consider whether the transaction contemplated under the proposed contract or arrangement is either similar to contracts or arrangements which have been undertaken in the past, or, in the event that such transaction is being undertaken for the first time, whether the Company intends to carry out similar transactions in the future.
3. Whether the transaction value is within the reasonable range for similar types of other transactions, will also be an important consideration. An exceptionally large value transaction should invite closer scrutiny.

DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST OR CONCERN

1. All Related Party Transactions in which Directors are interested as defined in Section 184/188 of the Act shall be entered in with all the relevant particulars in register maintained in Form MBP 4 as prescribed in Rule 16 of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014.
2. Further, director of Board who is interested in an item of business which is a Related Party Transaction under Section 188 of the Act proposed to be entered into by the company and transacted/approved at the meeting shall disclose in advance his/her interest / concern.
3. In accordance with provisions of Section 184(2) of the Act, if any director of a company is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, concerned or interested in a contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into:
 - a) with a body corporate in which such director or such director in association with any other director, holds more than two per cent shareholding of that body corporate, or is a promoter, manager,
 - b) Chief Executive Officer of that body corporate; or
 - c) with a firm or other entity in which, such director is a partner, owner or member, as the case maybe;
 - d) Then, he/she shall disclose the nature of his/her concern or interest at the meeting of the Board in which such contract or arrangement is discussed and shall not participate in such meeting during the discussion of such contract or arrangement.

Provided that where any director who is not so concerned or interested at the time of entering into such contract or arrangement, he shall, if he becomes concerned or interested after the contract or arrangement is entered into, disclose his concern or interest forthwith when he becomes concerned or interested or at the first meeting of the Board held after he becomes so concerned or interested.

NOTE:

A contract or arrangement entered into by the company without disclosure under section 184 (2) of the Act or with participation by a director who is concerned or interested in any way, directly or indirectly, in the contract or arrangement, shall be void.
